Funeral of Mrs. Thomas Dodd—Alumni of St. Mary's School Will Form a Glee Club—Local Notes.

There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends at the funeral of Mrs. Thomas Dodd, which was held from her late home, No. 202 Boswell avenue, Friday morning at 8.30 o'clock.
At 9 o'clock the remains were conveyed to St. Mary's church, where a solemn high mass was celebrated. Rev. James J. Smith was celebrant. Rev. Francis L.
Patriarch of St. Patrick's was deacon, and Rev. William A. Keefe was sub-deacon. The soloists during the mass were sung by Mrs. M. L. Silvey. At the offertory Golden Rule sang "O Salvator" and while the remains were being taken from the church he sang "Savior of My Soul." For a while before the remains were taken from the church, Miss Gertrude Wilson sang "Thy Heavenly Home." There was a large number of floral forms sent by relatives and friends. The bearers were John Dodd of New York, Thomas J. Michael E. and James Dodd, four sons of the deceased; Thomas Bowler, a nephew, and Mrs. J. R. R. R. R. R.
Burial was in the family lot in St. Mary's cemetery. The prayers at the grave were read by Rev. Father Keefe.

Planning for Glee Club.
The monthly meeting of the Alumni association of St. Mary's parochial school was held in the school building Wednesday evening, with Sister Lulu Gonzaga presiding. Plans were discussed to form a glee club, and a movement being proposed by Messrs.
Cummings, '06, and Gledhill, '07. For the club there are six violins, five mandolin, a piano and a guitar. The club meeting in April, it is expected that several more players will be found.
William Malone was the organist. The club will direct the choir in the church Craney of Prospect street will be in charge of the mandolin players.

Committee Appointed.
At a recent meeting of the Father Matthew T. A. society, held in their meeting room, it was decided to make full arrangements for the celebration of the 15th anniversary of the organization, which will be on April 9.

NORWICH TOWN.
Rev. E. H. Smith Reports for Manchester Conference—Rev. C. A.
Northrup Sums Up Results—Personal Items.

At the Thursday evening meeting of the Congregational church, reports were heard from the New England congregational congress, which was held in the First church, with Rev. E. H.
Smith. He said in brief:
There were grave problems for our New England churches to consider.
Our polity, the individual church, the unit. All must work together if anything is to be done. There is weakness in the church with a general home missionary problem is on our hands; the small country church, and the influence of the foreigner. Some New England towns are What is to be done with the little churches? They are losing ground, they must copy the First church, which affiliates with a strong church.

Must Combine.
Second, must combine.
The New England Home Missionary society is spending all the money it can get to keep alive the little churches. The congress was largely representative of northern New England.
One way of solving the problem was denominational unity, not for the sake of the denomination, yet to do its duty all must get together and not remain scattered, individual churches. Those churches which have been foremost in giving and in leadership of different kinds are the ones to which we look for the solving of the present problems. The meetings closed with enthusiasm.

Wide-Spreading Influence.
Rev. Mr. Northrup gave many glances of the congress: A changed environment, the slavery of our freedom. The strongest churches are in New England. The problem: To get together and to keep together under duties on Thursday, and will hereafter take his turn behind the desk, alternating with Jeremiah J. Beardon, and he

DECISION BY J. S. SUPREME COURT
Plaintiff Wins in Suit of James M. Young, Trustee, vs.
Joseph A. Lemieux Which Concerned $2,000 Drug Store of P. E. Hendrick of Taftville.

In the case of J. M. Young, trustee, vs. Joseph A. Lemieux, a case which has been in the courts for several years, decision has been rendered by the United States supreme court at Washington, to which court the case was appealed by the defendant.
A drug store at Taftville, which was the property involved, was originally part of the estate of Philip E. Hendrick, who went into bankruptcy and James M. Young of this city was appointed trustee of the estate.
Before he was adjudged a bankrupt, Mr. Hendrick claimed to have sold his entire drug store to Mr. Lemieux, and the latter took possession thereof. No notice of the intended sale was given as required in such cases by the statutes of Connecticut.
The trustee claimed that notice had not been given, and a demand for the return of Mr. Lemieux upon his refusal to deliver up to the trustee the store and contents of the intended sale to secure the same.
The case was tried in the superior court in this city before Judge Gager and decision rendered for the plaintiff to recover the goods.

We are awake and alive. These two meetings have already exerted an influence through the medium of the press that does not appear on the surface.

day afternoon by a small party of relatives and intimate friends, numbering about a dozen, who arrived to remind them it was their fortieth wedding anniversary and help them celebrate the day in a quiet manner. Gifts were presented.

The Epworth league of the Methodist Episcopal church met in the vestry at 7.30 on Friday evening. A devotional meeting occupied the first fifteen minutes. Following this was a committee meeting in which work was planned. The business meeting closed the hour.

TAFTVILLE.
Large Attendance at Funeral of Mrs.
Lena Volkman—Musical Norman of Missouri Home.

The funeral of Mrs. Lena Volkman was held from her late home on Hunterson avenue Friday afternoon with a large attendance of relatives and friends from Taftville, Lebanon, Bath, Vernon and the city. Rev. Theodore Bauck, pastor of the German Lutheran church, was the officiating clergyman. The bearers were Nicholas Krauss, John Hofer, John Steit, and Oscar Kniff. There was a prolonged service, with the reading of the scriptures, and the offering of flowers to the loving memory in which the deceased is laid. At the house the Taftville friends gathered for a reception. The funeral was held at the Lutheran church, where Rev. Mr.
Bauck offered prayer and the Mannether sang. The arrangements were in charge of Funeral Director Grant.

London, Mr. Norman is a cornetist interesting letter to The Bulletin, telling of his experiences.

PLANS AND SPECIFICATIONS WILL BE OBTAINED.
Water Board Authorizes Civil Engineer Chandler to Do the Work—Will Be Pushed Along.

There was a short meeting of the board of water commissioners on Friday evening, at which time it was decided that Civil Engineer C. E. Chandler be authorized to proceed at once on the work of getting out the plans and specifications for the change at Mr.
Meadow, for which the council Monday night appropriated $25,000. The plans and specifications will be gotten out at once, so that the work can be started at an early date, but just when cannot be told now.

It is the intention to replace the present dam with a modern one a hundred or so feet below the present one. The new dam can be built in pounded there while the other work is going on. There will also be some land acquired, as needed, the appropriation fully covering all the work intended there.

CONNECTICUT PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION.
Still Remains Near Center of Legislative Stage—Taxation a Leading Question—The Interstate Legislative Commission.

(Special to The Bulletin.) Hartford, March 5.—The interstate legislative commission which Representative Chandler of Rocky Hill was so desirous of getting through the legislature has apparently gone by the board. That is the way the work of arranging for harmonious legislation by the six New England states will be left to the permanent commission, which consists of E. P. Arvine and Talbot H. Russell of New Haven and Walter E. Coe of Stamford, and which was appointed for this very purpose some time since. That is the purpose of the recommendation of the measure yesterday. Chandler fought the thing from his standpoint as long as there was any use in it, but the legislature of Maine and New Hampshire will adjourn within a very few days and there was little use in appointing a legislative commission to work with the other New England states if two of the five would be unable to be worked with.

Saved Too Much of a Junket.
Mr. Dornitz of Woodbury offered some time since an amendment, which the present commission was tired on to do the work for which it was appointed, and such a junket which the legislature is not only likely to be salutary, but is in fact greatly needed by this commission.
The amendment would have saved yet, has become very plain. But when it came to creating another commission from the present legislature to do the work, which one called it a committee or commission, was a duplication and saved too much of a junket for the house to take kindly to it, especially when proposed by a new man to legislative halls.

Insufficient Harmony of Feeling.
There is no question of the value of uniform legislation on the great questions of the day, forest preservation, automobile control, shell fisheries conservation and the like, and it is the work of the legislature to pull together, but the scheme proposed was hardly like to produce very much of good in the end. There is a sufficient harmony of feeling or even acquiescence between New England legislatures to cause one to wait on the notions of another, especially at a time when the Connecticut legislature is about to find out whether the New England states and courts have been minding their own business in the matter of the New York, New Jersey and Hartford railroad of Connecticut.

The Taxation Question.
Taxation is a leading question of the day and becoming more and more so every day, with the proposition to create the $500,000 bond issue authorized by the last legislature to $7, 000,000, to lay a state tax, and Commissioners' Commission on the great questions on the market value of their capital stock, or so much of that value as is in excess of the valuation on which the taxes are paid, are paying taxes, before the general assembly.
There is a good deal of confusion over the matter, and it is not apparent that it is not realized yet that one duplicate the other and that if the legislature authorizes the bond issue while the State Treasury is anxious for it will be providing for the same state will provide for and depriving the state of all reason for being brought into existence.

In other words, the bond issue authorized by the last legislature, a consideration, deliberation and examination of every other method of financing the state, and the result of the three extraordinary projects entered upon by the legislature of 1907, the building of a building for the state library and the supreme court at the cost of $1,000,000, the building of a new armory and arsenal in Hartford at a cost of $500,000. There was no
